Excellent pictures and presentation although require some basic knowledge since not all the steps are explain in the cookbook but since I have some experience and almost finishing my culinary schooling, I am able to trouble shoot some missing steps. Very few cookbooks will really explain everything unless it is a teaching cookbook, yet even though, a few steps can still be missed. I have a library of recipe's and cookbooks that I accumulate over the years and not one of them cover everything but by reading and experience, I am able to put all the puzzle slowly together, yet I still need to develop a lot of skills especially in baking.

Bought this book for my sister for Christmas, I liked it so much I almost didn't give it to her. Arrived In plenty of time and she loved it.

Being a Cordon Bleu book, I think it should hold a whole lot more information than it does.

I loved this book and I learned how to make many Tarts....I wish I could go to this school in Frqance.. But a las I wasn't born with a silver spoon in my mouth...
