Customer Reviews

I'm in love! Everything you need to make amazing pasta dishes in one book. From history to a glossary of the shapes (regular and filled) to recipes for making your own pasta from scratch--and we haven't even gotten to the sauces or other recipes yet! Bechamel, classic Ragu alla Bolognese, Sugo Crudo per Spaghetti (uncooked tomato sauce for spaghetti--yum!!), soups, meat dishes, dairy, veggies, stuffed, baked and even sweet pasta dishes, there's something here for every one!! If you think baked pastas are for kids and potlucks, maybe you should try Timpano di Maccheroni alla Pompadour. This Baked Macaroni with Chicken and Prosciutto is rich with not just the prosciutto and chicken, but truffles, cream and more. Oh, my! Tired of your old pesto dishes? Make your own pistachio pesto! We had it in Sicily and it is amazing!! Now I can make it in my own home! You can find something for any occasion. There are involved, fancy dishes meant to impress as well as super simple dishes such as Tagliatelle All'Inglese (Tagliatelle with Butter and Cheese). While this book is lacking in photos--it actually has few, and what it does have is black and white and not of the recipes themselves--it makes up for it in information and delightful recipes. I did drop the rating 1 point for lack of photos, but it is definitely a keeper. I received a copy of this book through IPG for my honest review. All thoughts and opinions are my own.
