Customer Reviews

If you want authentic Jamaican recipes, this is not the book for you. Not even one of these recipes comes close to real Jamaican cooking; and the fact that the author uses the word "Jamaican" in her book title, as well as the titles of the recipes, is duplicitous to say the least. I grew up in Jamaica and I don't recognize any of these recipes as being "Jamaican".

This is a cookbook with Jamaican crock pot recipes and for that I will give it 2 stars. The 3 stars missing are for the lack of pictures, the old look of the book, the pages are yellow and cheap paper. It just looks old and cheap and I bought the book new. It was very disappointing. I bought this as a gift. It is not a good gift bc it looks very cheap.

The recipes in this book are excellent. All of the ingredients can be found in the local supermarket. I cook with my slow cooker often and I plan to try all 25 recipes.

Incredibly simple to make delicious recipes . It helps to have someone write this who is so passionate about the cooking.
