Southeastern Berks County (PA) (Postcard History Series)

Synopsis

Berks County was established in 1752 from portions of Chester, Lancaster, and Philadelphia Counties, but its early settlers had already left their marks on the area. Southeastern Berks County covers a mythical trip between the villages Oley, Englesville, Exeter, Yellow House, Earlville, Amityville, Douglassville, Pine Forge, Little Oley, Greshville, Moreysville, Boyertown, Gabelsville, Shanesville, and Pleasantville. It examines why people settled here and how they lived, worked, and enjoyed themselves 100 years ago. The trip, taken through the medium of vintage postcards, may be traveled today by car.

Customer Reviews

I have at least 20 of these series books already. A very interesting way to present local history. Every once in a while I get a 'dud'; but this one was all about the area I live in now [within a 20 mile radius]. Now I know what old building used to be when I pass them in town and along the road. . .
