Customer Reviews

I own both Noteworthy and Noteworthy II, recipes from the Ravinia festival and I cannot say enough about them. For nearly eight years now, I have used these cookbooks for every family gathering, cocktail party and family meal. My love of cooking was stimulated by the recipes provided in these books which are both easy to follow and delicious. I have not yet found one recipe I didn't enjoy after preparation. Noteworthy is well organized and has sections of great photographs to entice you to select one of it's great dishes. You will dazzle your guests with the wonderful combinations and not feel like you had to try to hard. These books are among my favorite possessions, I'd be lost without them. You'll not be disappointed...ENJOY!

This cookbook is a marvel--it is far and away my favorite cookbook. I turn to it for every event, and it contains all my family's favorite dishes. One note, however, follow the recipies closely! Omitting or changing any ingredient really alters things substantially (I don't like olives and left them out of a dish and it truly suffered for it. When I made it again, I added the olives and it is now a favorite!)

This book is an excellent gift idea.

The recipes of Noteworthy have made their way into my family's collection of favorites. I trust this cookbook so much that I make untried dishes on special occasions. Noteworthy has not let me down!

Of all the cookbooks I own and all the recipes I have ever tried, this is BY FAR my favorite cookbook of all time! I am not a master chef or great cook by any means, but this book has fantastic recipes. Varying degrees of complexity, but if you can read and follow directions, you can make these. I make a little mark by each recipe as I try them and, by golly, there are lots of tick marks! There are lovely photos of some dishes. I also have Noteworthy Two, which is also great, but this one is better. I always get compliments on these dishes.

This is the first Noteworthy you should own, then buy the 2nd because they are different and equally good. enjoy!!!
