Customer Reviews

I am a potato FREAK, so of course I bought this cookbook. Problems: no pictures, and some of the recipes are really weird--like it's a contest to see what meals you can fit a potato into--like "potato candy". Much better is the Williams-Sonoma Potato Cookbook.

A second Potato cookbook bought to give me options other than mashed and baked. As with the other cookbook, it would be better if they focused more on appetizers and main courses instead of breads and desserts. But worth it anyway.

I bought this book for my daughter who is in college in Idaho! Since potatoes can be purchased cheaply there, you can imagine they eat a lot of them. This book was perfect with the many different recipes.
