Customer Reviews

I have tried several recipes so far and can not praise them high enough. Allows more diversity in my diet as far as incorporating more raw fruits and veggies. Very well thought out and easy to follow. A big thanks to Joe Cross and team for starting me on a healthier path on life. Just what I needed!

Loved the recipes. Really appreciated the helpful substitutions section at the end as well. Great book. Would recommend to anyone trying to make healthy changes but not interested in the expense of buying a juicer.

Great recipes, nicely arranged. It inexplicably assumes 8oz portions instead of the 16-20oz portions in the rest of Joe's material. I tend to cut the lemon & ginger in half, but I expect my taste to adjust. Apparently no longer available in hard copy (mine's Kindle), so I'm hoping it means an update's coming? But a very helpful smoothie recipe book.

I like the fact that the nutritional information for each smoothie is posted because I need low sugar types. So I was able to pick a good core group of low sugar smoothie to try.

As a cancer survivor living a plant based life now, this book was excellent. Anything Joe Cross makes this lifestyle change very easy. Their book is more helpful than most in that it tells you what the medical benefits are to each recipe. What I mean is it tells you if it is good for helping cancer, diabetes, heart issues. It is a great help to many different kinds of people choosing a plant based lifestyle no matter what their reason. I have both this book as well as the Joe Cross 101 Juice Recipe book. They are both worth your money and time.

Great recipes. I especially like the substitutes guide. My only disappointment is that there is not a way to search for recipes by condition i.e. smoothie recipes for combating migraines etc. Other than that absolutely wonderful.

Joe Cross and his team of nutritionists make the best recipes anywhere. Try the 101 Juice Recipes too - haven't found a bad one in all the ones I've tried.

Have tried several recipes, all have been good.
